Studio Application

Thank you for your interest in joining the LibertyTown family! Every now and then, a space will become available here and we'll want to find the artist who will best fit that space. Submitting your application doesn't guarantee that you'll be next in line, but it does guarantee that we'll be thinking about you.

How much space would you prefer?

Do you plan to teach here? If so, would you prefer to teach in your studio or would you require a separate space? If you plan to teach, what classes would you offer?

Please attach three examples of recent work or provide a URL to an online portfolio of recent work.

Did someone refer you to us?

Please contact us if you have any questions about this application. We may be in touch to schedule a brief interview if we think we have a good space for you. In the meantime, we hope to see you at the gallery and your work in our juried shows!
